PAN HELLENIC COUNCIL

Pan Hellenic Council is composed of representatives from the four social sororities on the campus. The Council promotes sisterhood and cooperation between the sororities. All groups stand for good college citizenship, maintenance of high social standards, and good scholarship. Sorority life helps to build character, develops personality and charm, and teaches the girls to serve others.

CUSTER HALL

Mrs. Foster of Hill City, Mrs. O'Brien of Russell, and Miss Ruby Cox of Stonewall, Texas, presided over Custer Hall this year. The seventy-seven girls living in the hall sponsored a tea for the faculty members in the fall and held an informal party and a spring formal. The officers for the first semester were: president, Marjorie Neptune; vice-president, Geraldine Daniel; secretary, Roma Gatewood; treasurer, Annella Skeen. The second semester officers were: president, Geraldine Daniel; vice-president, Nellie Campbell; secretary, Corinne Miller; treasurer, Ellen Witt.

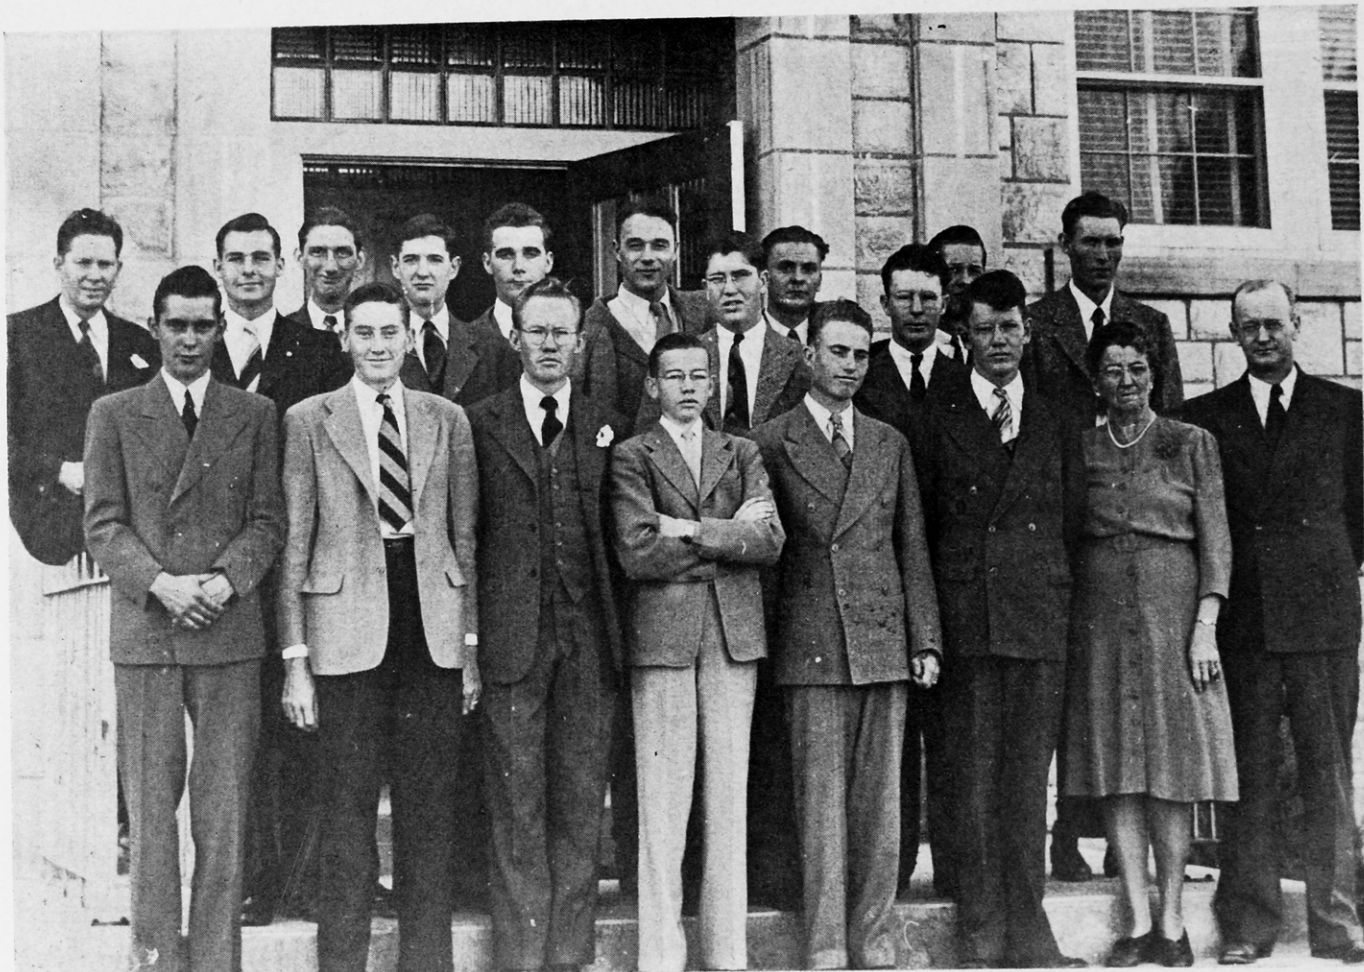

WESLEY HALL

A little work—a little play—friendship and fellowship galore. These help to make up the wholesome atmosphere prevalent among the group of college women enjoying dormitory life in Wesley Hall, where fifty-three girls make their home. Mrs. Martha R. Walters is housemother.

Wesley Hall officers are president, Mildred Knight; vice-president, Louise Chappell; secretary and treasurer, Elinor Brining, first semester; Estella Hayes, second semester.

LEWIS FIELD

"Yes, we are the men who live in the new dormitory at Lewis Field, and by the way, the phone number is '31,'" is the answer many girls get from the men on the campus this year.

The new dormitory was constructed during 1942-43 and made ready for occupancy just in time for the army aviation students who arrived on the campus in the spring of 1943. Under the name of Barracks B the army used the dormitory until the aviation students left the campus. Since then the field has again been occupied by civilian men.

Mrs. W. A. "Mother" Lewis has, as in the past, made Lewis Field the real home for men. Dr. W. D Moreland is supervisor and has had charge of Lewis Field and its development.

STUDENT COUNCIL

The Student Council is the executive committee of students heading the student body. This organization is composed of the class presidents, two representatives from each class and three members chosen from the student body at large.

The council upholds and administers the laws to serve the interests of the students. The Friday and Saturday night varsities held weekly in the Social building were made possible largely through the efforts of the council.

MEMBERS

Front Row: Doloros Bolan, Geraldine Irby, Norbert Dreiling, president; Annabelle Montgomery; June Gale, secretary-treasurer; Esther Hueftle; Elinor Brining.

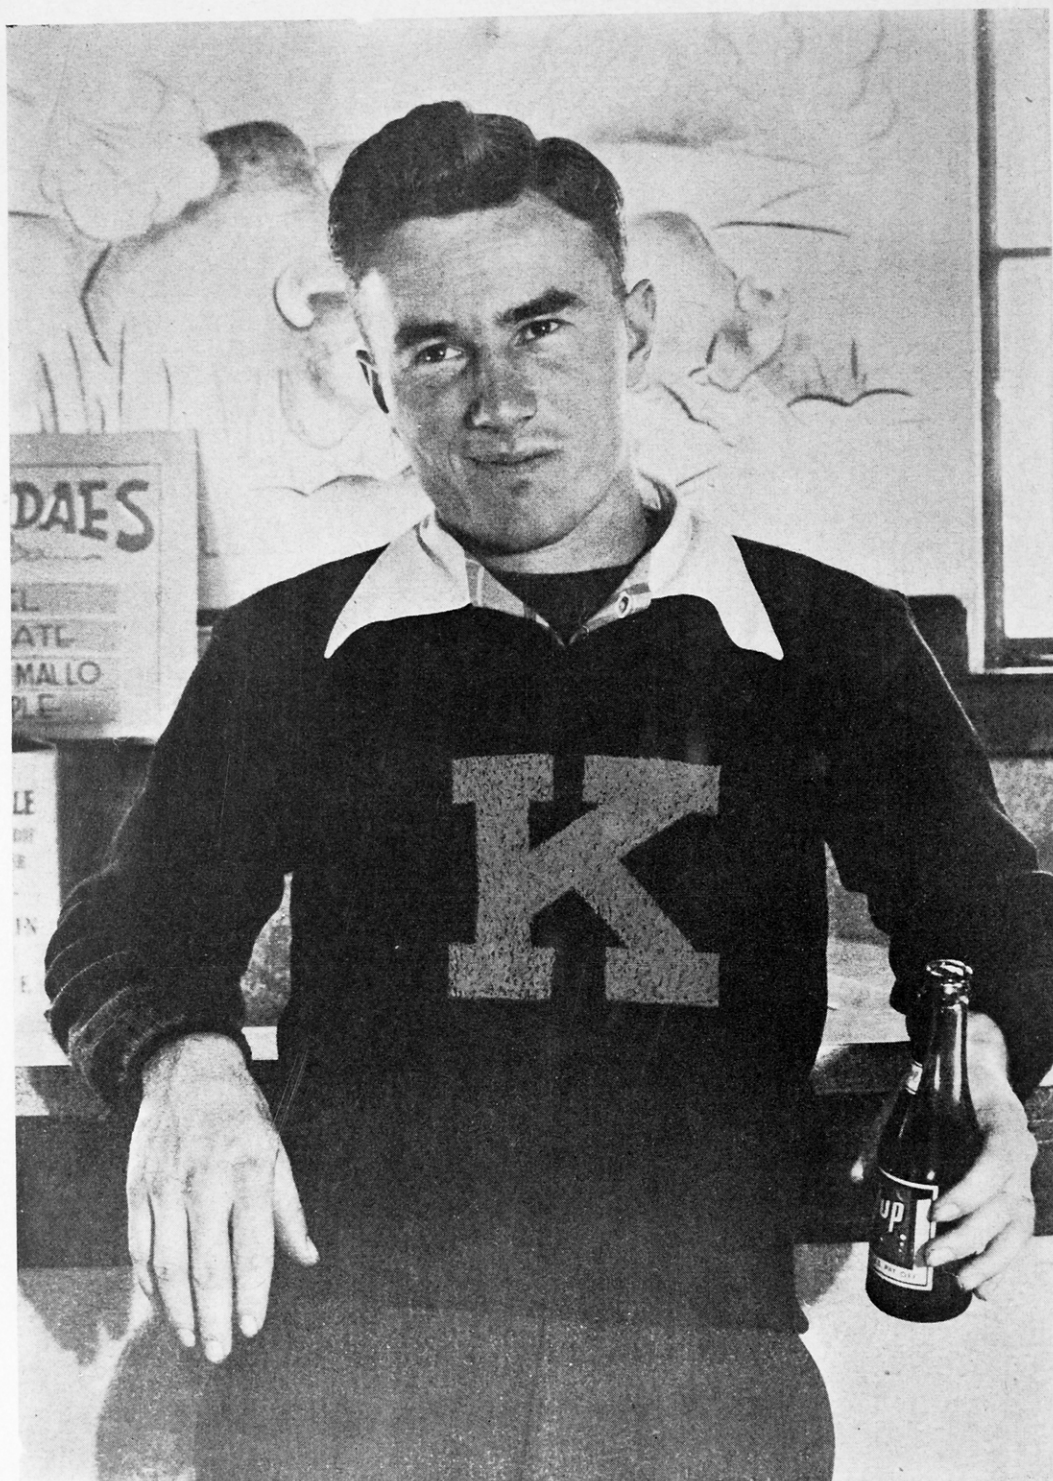

Y. W. C. A.

Offering an opportunity for religious, intellectual, and social expression and enjoyment to all women students, the Young Women's Christian Association has one of the largest memberships on the campus. Each year in conjunction with the Newman Club, the Y.W. sponsors Religious Emphasis Week.

Women's Leadership

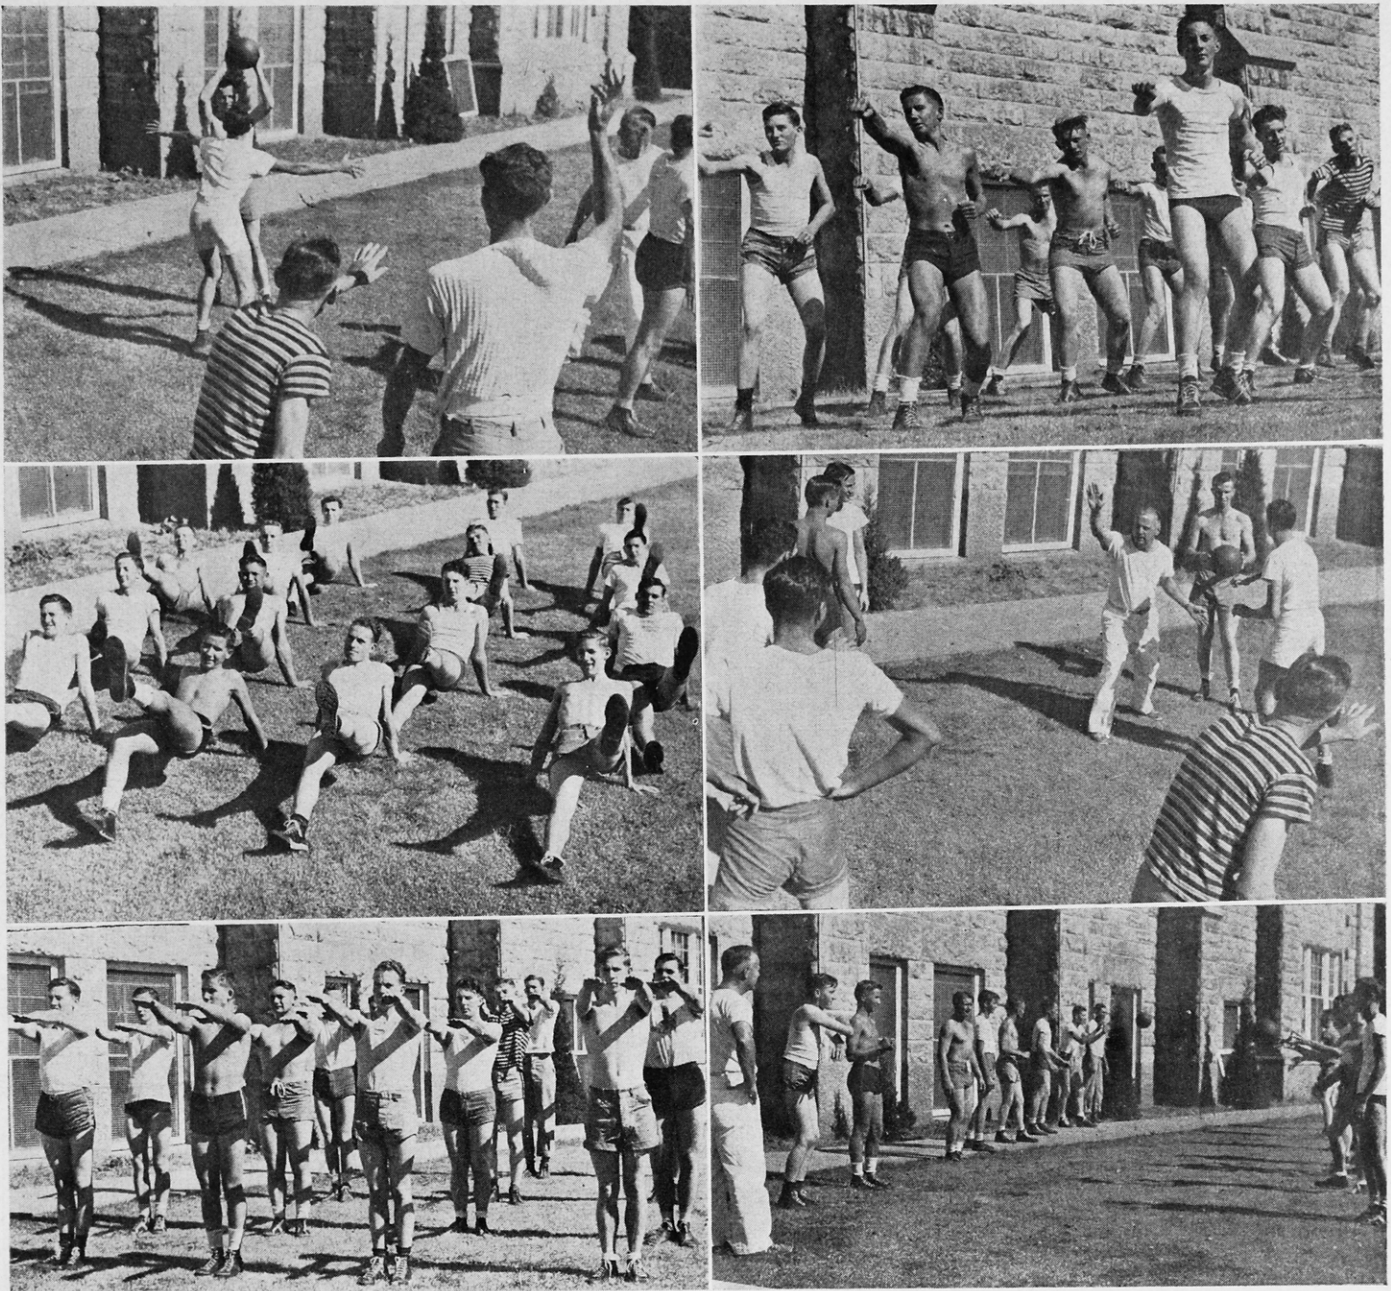

To promote leadership among the women on the Fort Hays State campus is the aim and purpose of the Women's Leadership. Members are chosen to this organization on the basis of scholarship, leadership, service and character. Club membership is limited to fifteen. Among the duties of Women's Leadership this year was the sponsoring of the Friday night dances.

"All right, everybody on your stomachs for pushups" . . . "Keep that left out in front." . . . "Lemme see that pill" . . . and from whence does this jargon come? . . . your guess, I'm too tired and sore . . . I take physical education.

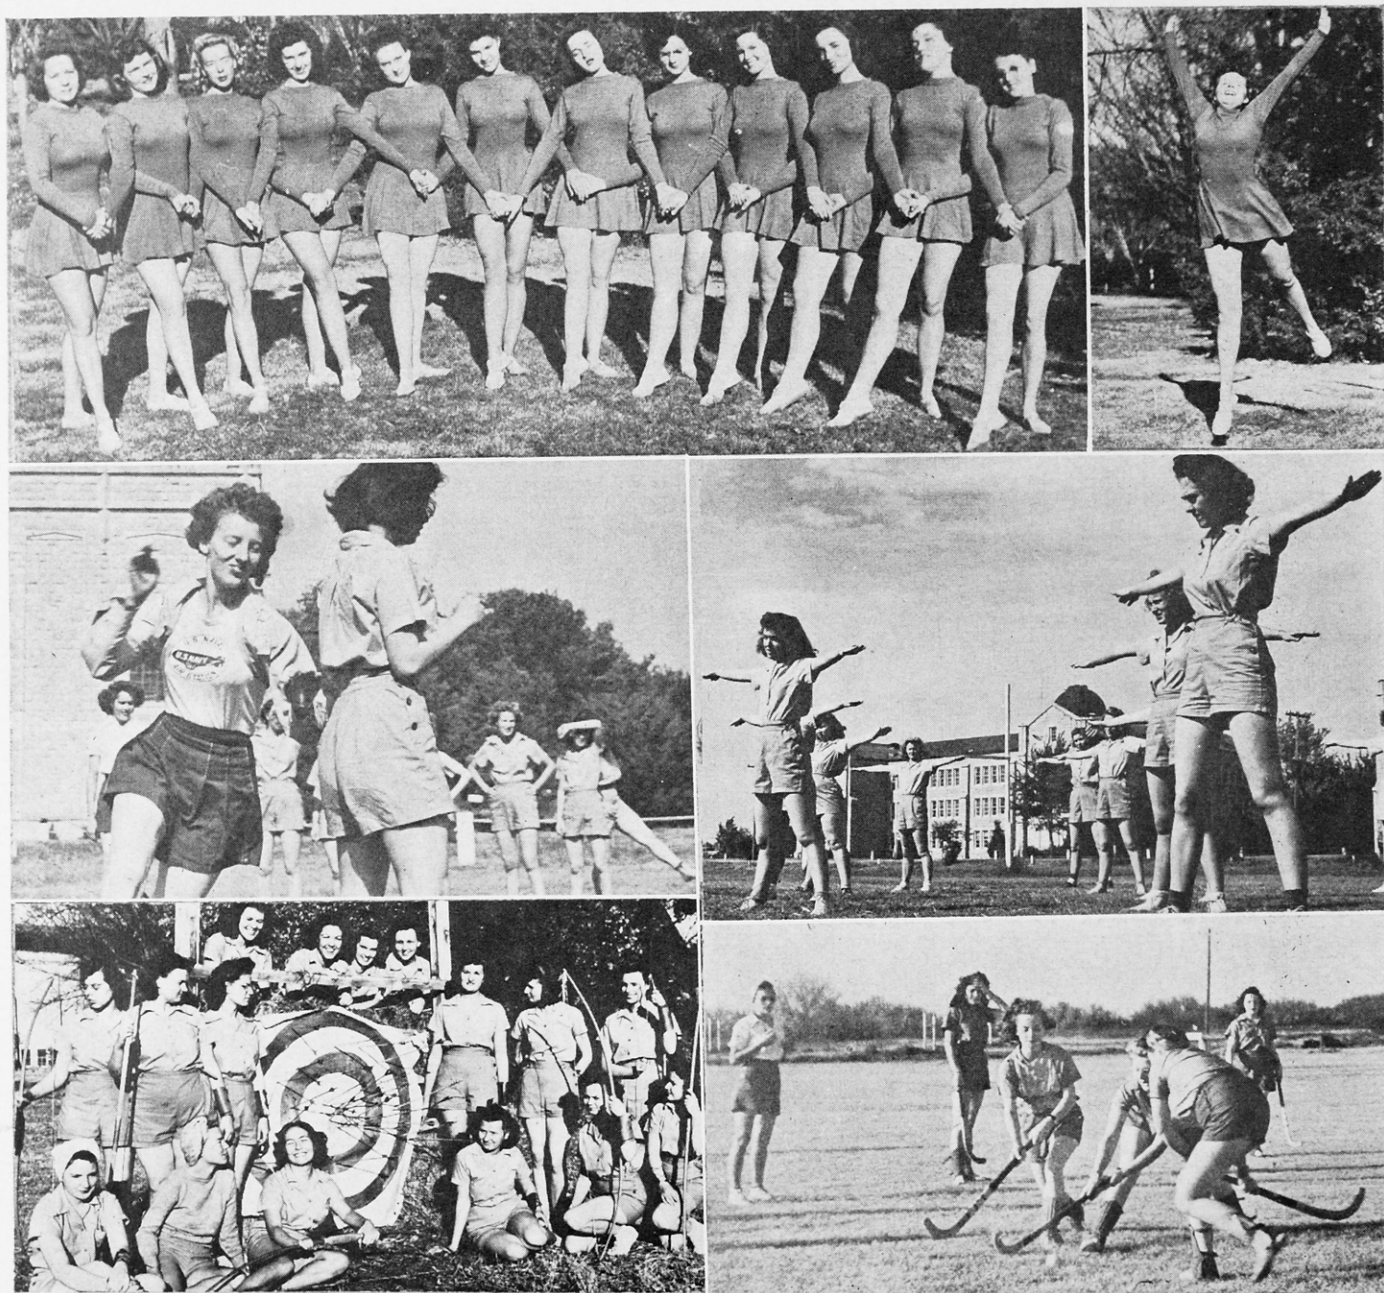

Fort Hays State was back in the basketball picture this year with a group of boys labeled the Fort Hays Wildcats, burning up the maples with eleven victories in fourteen starts.

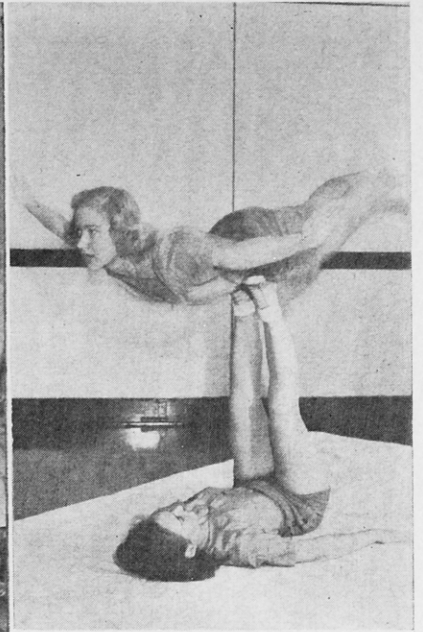

Though sports are not in full swing, with the present world state of affairs, the physical education department is doing its utmost to build 'em bigger and better . . . power to 'em.

MEN'S SPORTS

GIRLS SPORTS

Nothing like good ol' pushups to keep those muscles in A-1 condition — they tell us. The Fort Hays coed is out for dancing, archery, hockey and hitpin, testing her skill in the class intramural contests. "Keeping fit" is her motto — and her practice.

The Women's Athletic Association under the sponsorship of Mrs. Maurine Bergland, girls' physical education instructor, is an organization for girls interested in all types of girls' sports. Annabelle Wylie is president of the organization.

Ping pong, volley ball, and basketball tournaments were held during the fall and spring semesters of the year.

LEADER

Folding twenty-three hundred papers every Thursday afternoon is quite a job, but Leaders each week start on journeys to service men all over the globe, making the off-campus circulation far larger than the campus distribution.

REVEILLE

Here it is—your 1945 Reveille. It's not complete—it can't be—for it's a wartime version of a school at war. The staff has tried to catch the big things that you'll always remember—your clubs, your activities, your instructors and your classes. To us, that's Fort Hays State. Mr. Wendell Kellogg was editorial adviser, Mr. Walter Wallerstedt, printing adviser. The brilliant cover of this year's book was designed and executed in silk screen by Mr. Drew Dobosh, art adviser.

Quill Club

The Quill Club is a national honorary organization for the purpose of fostering creative writing among students. Officers are Chancellor, Ruth Hueftle, Vice-Chancellor and faculty sponsor, Mrs. Edna Coder; Keeper of the Parchment, Eugene Pugh; Warden of the Purse, Elinor Brining; Scribe, Hope Townley.

International Relations Club

In May, 1936, Dr. Raymond Welty helped to organize and became the sponsor of the International Relations Club, the purpose being to study material of national and international importance and to keep members informed of daily world events.

Officers are president, Phyllis Blackburn; vice-president and program chairman, Norbert Dreiling; secretary and treasurer, Irene Thornburg.

KAPPA PI

A new composition, the blending of color, a block print, sketching a lithograph, or working in ceramics are all major interests to the members of Nu chapter of Kappa Pi, national honorary art fraternity. Students who are majors or minors in art and who have a satisfactory grade point are eligible for membership. Student members this year were Gloria Buck and Erma Henthorn; faculty members were Drew Dobosh, Mabel Vandiver, and T. W. Wells.

NEWMAN CLUB

The Newman Club is a national Catholic youth organization for college students. Meetings are held every first and third Wednesday of the month when discussions on religious problems are held. Frances Locker is president this year. The group helps sponsor Religious Emphasis Week.

IDEALS ARE PRACTICAL THINGS

Victory, complete and final, is the objective of every activity that now engages the attention of Government, of Industry, of Labor and of Finance.

In war, as in peace, those who carry on in public service must hold fast to ideals. Entrust your business to an institution that has served well through every major crisis for over fifty-five years.
